IMPORTANT: BIDS MUST BE RECEIVED BY: 5/5/2021 BEFORE 2:00 P.M. HIGHLAND HEIGHTS, KY time.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENTS

1. The University's General Terms and Conditions and Instructions to Bidders, viewable at the NKU Procurement Website, apply to this Request for Bid.
2. Contracts resulting from this ITB must be governed by and in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.
3. Any agreement or collusion among Offerors or prospective Offerors, which restrains, tends to restrain, or is reasonably calculated to restrain competition by agreement to bid at a fixed price or to refrain from offering, or otherwise, is prohibited.
4. Any person who violates any provisions of KRS 45A.325 shall be guilty of a felony and shall be punished by a fine of not less than five thousand dollars nor more than ten thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not less than one year nor more than five years, or both such fine and imprisonment. Any firm, corporation, or association who violates any of the provisions of KRS 45A.325 shall, upon conviction, may be fined not less than ten thousand dollars or more than twenty thousand dollars.

AUTHENTICATION OF BID AND STATEMENT OF NON-COLLUSION AND NON-CONFLICT OF INTEREST

I hereby swear (or affirm) under the penalty for false swearing as provided by KRS 523.040:

1. That I am the offeror (if the offeror is an individual), a partner, (if the offeror is a partnership), or an officer or employee of the bidding corporation having authority to sign on its behalf (if the offeror is a corporation);
2. That the attached bid has been arrived at by the offeror independently and has been submitted without collusion with, and without any agreement, understanding or planned common course of action with, any other Contractor of materials, supplies, equipment or services described in the Request for Bid, designed to limit independent bidding or competition;
3. That the contents of the bid have not been communicated by the offeror or its employees or agents to any person not an employee or agent of the offeror or its surety on any bond furnished with the bid and will not be communicated to any such person prior to the official closing of the ITB;
4. That the offeror is legally entitled to enter into contracts with the Northern Kentucky University and is not in violation of any prohibited conflict of interest, including those prohibited by the provisions of KRS 45A.330 to .340, 164.390, and
5. That the Offeror, and its affiliates, are duly registered with the Kentucky Department of Revenue to collect and remit the sale and use tax imposed by Chapter 139 to the extent required by Kentucky law and will remain registered for the duration of any contract award
6. That I have fully informed myself regarding the accuracy of the statement made above.

SWORN STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH FINANCE LAWS

In accordance with KRS45A.110 (2), the undersigned hereby swears under penalty of perjury that he/she has not knowingly violated any provision of the campaign finance laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and that the award of a contract to a bidder will not violate any provision of the campaign finance laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

CONTRACTOR REPORT OF PRIOR VIOLATIONS OF KRS CHAPTERS 136, 139, 141, 337, 338, 341 & 342

The Contractor by signing and submitting a bid agrees as required by 45A.485 to submit final determinations of any violations of the provisions of KRS Chapters 136, 139, 141, 337, 338, 341 and 342 that have occurred in the previous five (5) years prior to the award of a contract and agrees to remain in continuous compliance with the provisions of the statutes during the duration of any contract that may be established. Final determinations of violations of these statutes must be provided to the University by the successful Contractor prior to the award of a contract.

CERTIFICATION OF NON-SEGREGATED FACILITIES

The Contractor, by submitting a bid, certifies that he/she is in compliance with the Code of Federal Regulations, No. 41 CFR 60-1.8(b) that prohibits the maintaining of segregated facilities.

RECIPROCAL PREFERENCE

- (1) Prior to a contract being awarded to the lowest responsible and responsive bidder on a contract by a public agency, a resident bidder of the Commonwealth shall be given a preference against a nonresident bidder registered in any state that gives or requires a preference to bidders from that state. The preference shall be equal to the preference given or required by the state of the nonresident bidder.
- (2) A resident bidder is an individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other business entity that, on the date the contract is first advertised or announced as available for bidding:
 - (a) Is authorized to transact business in the Commonwealth; and
 - (b) Has for one (1) year prior to and through the date of the advertisement, filed Kentucky corporate income taxes, made payments to the Kentucky unemployment insurance fund established in KRS 341.490, and maintained a Kentucky workers' compensation policy in effect.
- (3) A nonresident bidder is an individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other business entity that does not meet the requirements of subsection (2) of this section.
- (4) If a procurement determination results in a tie between a resident bidder and a nonresident bidder, preference shall be given to the resident bidder.
- (5) This section shall apply to all contracts funded or controlled in whole or in part by a public agency.
- (6) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall maintain a list of states that give to or require a preference for their own resident bidders, including details of the preference given to such bidders, to be used by public agencies in determining resident bidder preferences. The cabinet shall also promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A establishing the procedure by which the preferences required by this section shall be given.
- (7) The preference for resident bidders shall not be given if the preference conflicts with federal law.
- (8) Any public agency soliciting or advertising for bids for contracts shall make KRS 45A.490 to 45A.494 part of the solicitation or advertisement for bids

DEFINITIONS

Note: Bids received after the closing date and time will not be considered.

3.6 Modification or Withdrawal of Offer

An offer and/or modification of offer received at the office designated in the solicitation after the exact hour and date specified for receipt will not be considered.

An offer may be modified or withdrawn by written notice before the exact hour and date specified for receipt of offers. An offer also may be withdrawn in person by an offeror or an authorized representative, provided the identity of the person is made known and the person signs a receipt for the offer, but only if the withdrawal is made prior to the exact hour and date set for receipt of offers.

3.7 Acceptance or Rejection and Award of Bid

The University reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids, to waive any informalities or technicalities, to clarify any ambiguities in bids. in the bid. In case of error in extension or prices or other errors in calculation, the unit price shall govern. Further, the University reserves the right to make a single award, split awards, multiple awards or no award, whichever is in the best interest of the University.

3.8 Rejection

Grounds for the rejection of bids include (but shall not be limited to):

- a) Failure of a bid to conform to the essential requirements of the ITB.
- b) Imposition of conditions that would significantly modify the terms and conditions of the solicitation or limit the offeror's liability to the University on the contract awarded on the basis of such solicitation.
- c) Failure of the offeror to sign the University ITB. This includes the Authentication of Bid and Statement of Non-Collusion and Non-Conflict of Interest statements. (pages 1 & 2)
- d) Failure to sign the Bid Form / Form of Bid
- e) Receipt of bid after the closing date and time specified in the ITB.

3.19 Addenda

Any addenda or instructions issued by the purchasing agent prior to the time for receiving bids shall become a part of this ITB. Such addenda shall be acknowledged on the bid form or form of bid. No instructions or changes shall be binding unless documented by a proper and duly issued addendum.

3.10 Disclosure of Offeror's Response

The ITB specifies the format, required information and general content of bids submitted in response to this ITB. The purchasing agent will not disclose any portions of the bids prior to contract award to anyone outside the Office of Procurement Services, the University's administrative staff, representatives of the state or federal government (if required) and the members of the committee evaluating the bids. After a contract is awarded in whole or in part, the University shall have the right to duplicate, use or disclose all bid data submitted by offerors in response to this ITB as a matter of public record.

Any submitted bid shall remain valid for 90 days after the bid due date.

3.11 Restrictions on Communications with University Staff

From the issue date of this ITB until a contractor is selected and a contract award is made, offerors are not allowed to communicate about the subject of the ITB with any University administrator, faculty, staff or members of the board of regents except: the purchasing agent representative, any University purchasing official representing the University administration, others authorized in writing by the Office of Procurement Services and University representatives during offeror presentations. If violation of this provision occurs, the University reserves the right to reject the offeror's bid.

3.12 Cost of Preparing Bid or Bid

Costs for developing the bids or bids and any subsequent activities prior to contract award are solely the responsibility of the offerors. The University will provide no reimbursement for such costs.

3.13 Questions

All questions should be submitted by either fax or e-mail to the purchasing agent listed in Section 3.2 no later than the date listed in Section 3.1.

3.14 No Contingent Fees

No person or selling agency shall be employed or retained or given anything of monetary value to solicit or secure this contract, except bona fide employees of the offeror or bona fide established commercial or selling agencies maintained by the offeror for the purpose of securing business. For breach or violation of this provision, the University shall have the right to reject the bid, annul the contract without liability, or, at its discretion, deduct from the contract price or otherwise recover the full amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee or other benefit.

3.15 Bid Addenda and Rules for Withdrawal

Prior to the date specified for receipt of offers, a submitted bid may be withdrawn by submitting a written request for its withdrawal to the University purchasing office, signed by the offeror. Unless requested by the University, the University will not accept revisions or alterations to bids after the bid due date.

3.16 Effective Date

The effective date of the contract shall be the date upon which the parties execute it and all appropriate approvals, including that of the (if applicable) Commonwealth of Kentucky Legislative Contracts Review Committee, have been received.

3.17 Contractor Cooperation in Related Efforts

The University reserves the right to undertake or award other contracts for additional or related work to other entities. The contractor shall fully cooperate with such other contractors and University employees and carefully fit its work to such additional work. The contractor shall not commit or permit any act which will interfere with the performance of work by any other contractor or by University employees. This clause shall be included in the contracts of all contractors with whom this contractor will be required to cooperate. The University shall equitably enforce this clause to all contractors to prevent the imposition of unreasonable burdens on any contractor.

3.18 Governing Law

The contractor shall conform to and observe all laws, ordinances, rules and regulations of the United States of America, Commonwealth of Kentucky and all other local governments, public authorities, boards or offices relating to the property or the improvements upon same (or the use thereof) and will not permit the same to be used for any illegal or immoral purposes, business or occupation. The resulting contract shall be governed by Kentucky law and any claim relating to this contract shall only be brought in the Franklin Circuit Court in accordance with KRS 45A.245.

3.19 Kentucky's Personal Information Security and Breach Investigation Procedures and Practices Act

To the extent Company receives Personal Information as defined by and in accordance with Kentucky's Personal Information Security and Breach Investigation Procedures and Practices Act, KRS 61.931, 61.932 and 61.933 (the "Act"), Company shall secure and protect the Personal Information by, without limitation: (i) complying with all requirements applicable to non-affiliated third parties set forth in the Act; (ii) utilizing security and breach investigation procedures that are appropriate to the nature of the Personal Information disclosed, at least as stringent as University's and reasonably designed to protect the Personal Information from unauthorized access, use, modification, disclosure, manipulation, or destruction; (iii) notifying University of a security breach relating to Personal Information in the possession of Company or its agents or subcontractors within seventy-two (72) hours of discovery of an actual or suspected breach unless the exception set forth in KRS 61.932(2)(b)2 applies and Company abides by the requirements set forth in that exception; (iv) cooperating with University in complying with the response, mitigation, correction, investigation, and notification requirements of the Act, (v) paying all costs of notification, investigation and mitigation in the event of a security breach of Personal Information suffered by Company; and (vi) at University's discretion and direction, handling all administrative functions associated with notification, investigation and mitigation.

3.20 Termination for Convenience

Northern Kentucky University, Office of Procurement Services, reserves the right to terminate the resulting contract without cause with a thirty (30) day written notice. Upon receipt by the contractor of a "notice of termination," the contractor shall discontinue all services with respect to the applicable contract. The cost of any agreed upon services provided by the contractor will be calculated at the agreed upon rate prior to a "notice of termination" and a fixed fee contract will be pro-rated (as appropriate).

3.21 Termination for Non-Performance

a) Default

The University may terminate the resulting contract for non-performance, as determined by the University, for such causes as:

- Failing to provide satisfactory quality of service, including, failure to maintain adequate personnel, whether arising from labor disputes, or otherwise any substantial change in ownership or proprietorship of the Contractor, which in the opinion of the University is not in its best interest, or failure to comply with the terms of this contract;

- Failing to keep or perform, within the time period set forth herein, or violation of, any of the covenants, conditions, provisions or agreements herein contained;
- Adjudicating as a voluntarily bankrupt, making a transfer in fraud of its creditors, filing a petition under any section from time to time, or under any similar law or statute of the United States or any state thereof, or if an order for relief shall be entered against the Contractor in any proceeding filed by or against contractor thereunder. In the event of any such involuntary bankruptcy proceeding being instituted against the Contractor, the fact of such an involuntary petition being filed shall not be considered an event of default until sixty (60) days after filing of said petition in order that Contractor might during that sixty (60) day period have the opportunity to seek dismissal of the involuntary petition or otherwise cure said potential default; or
- Making a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or taking the benefit of any insolvency act, or if a permanent receiver or trustee in bankruptcy shall be appointed for the Contractor.

b) Demand for Assurances

In the event the University has reason to believe Contractor will be unable to perform under the Contract, it may make a demand for reasonable assurances that Contractor will be able to timely perform all obligations under the Contract. If Contractor is unable to provide such adequate assurances, then such failure shall be an event of default and grounds for termination of the Contract.

c) Notification

The University will provide ten (10) calendar days written notice of default. Unless arrangements are made to correct the non-performance issues to the University's satisfaction within ten (10) calendar days, the University may terminate the contract by giving forty-five (45) days notice, by registered or certified mail, of its intent to cancel this contract.

3.22 Funding Out

The University may terminate this contract if funds are not appropriated or are not otherwise available for the purpose of making payments without incurring any obligation for payment after the date of termination, regardless of the terms of the contract. The University shall provide the contractor thirty (30) calendar days' written notice of termination under this provision.

3.23 Assignment and Subcontracting

The Contractor(s) may not assign or delegate its rights and obligations under any contract in whole or in part without the prior written consent of the University. Any attempted assignment or subcontracting shall be void.

3.24 Permits, Licenses, Taxes

The contractor shall procure all necessary permits and licenses and abide by all applicable laws, regulations and ordinances of all federal, state and local governments in which work under this contract is performed.

The contractor must furnish certification of authority to conduct business in the Commonwealth of Kentucky as a condition of contract award. Such registration is obtained from the Secretary of State, who will also provide the certification thereof. However, the contractor need not be registered as a prerequisite for responding to the ITB.

The contractor shall pay any sales, use, personal property and other tax arising out of this contract and the transaction contemplated hereby. Any other taxes levied upon this contract, the transaction or the equipment or services delivered pursuant hereto shall be the responsibility of the contractor.

The contractor will be required to accept liability for payment of all payroll taxes or deductions required by local and federal law including (but not limited to) old age pension, social security or annuities.

3.25 Attorneys' Fees

In the event that either party deems it necessary to take legal action to enforce any provision of the contract and in the event that the University prevails, the contractor agrees to pay all expenses of such action including attorneys' fees and costs at all stages of litigation.

3.26 Royalties, Patents, Copyrights and Trademarks

The Contractor shall pay all applicable royalties and license fees. If a particular process, products or device is specified in the contract documents and it is known to be subject to patent rights or copyrights, the existence of such rights shall be disclosed in the contract documents and the Contractor is responsible for payment of all associated royalties. To the fullest extent permitted by law the Contractor shall indemnify, hold the University harmless, and defend all suits, claims, losses, damages or liability resulting from any infringement of patent, copyright, and trademark rights resulting from the incorporation in the Work or device specified in the Contract Documents.

Unless provided otherwise in the contract, the Contractor shall not use the University's name nor any of its trademarks or copyrights, although it may state that it has a Contract with the University.

3.27 Indemnification

The contractor shall indemnify, hold and save harmless the University, its affiliates and subsidiaries and their officers, agents and employees from losses, claims, suits, actions, expenses, damages, costs (including court costs and attorneys' fees of the University's attorneys), all liability of any nature or kind arising out of or relating to the Contractor's response to this ITB or its performance or failure to perform under the contract awarded from this ITB. This clause shall survive termination for as long as necessary to protect the University.

3.28 Insurance

If awarded, bidder / proposer must provide NKU with an insurance certificate listing NKU as a certificate holder and additionally insured.

Northern Kentucky University
617 Lucas Administrative Center
1 Nunn Drive
Highland Heights, KY 41099

If accessing NKU Student, Employee, or other personal records, vendor needs Evidence Breach Response Services coverage with limits no less than $5,000,000.

3.29 Method of Award

It is the intent of the University to award a contract to the qualified offeror whose bid, conforming to the conditions and requirements of the ITB, is determined to be the lowest.

Notwithstanding the above, this ITB does not commit the University to award a contract from this solicitation. The University reserves the right to reject any or all offers and to waive formalities and minor irregularities in the bid received.

3.30 Reciprocal Preference

In accordance with KRS 45A.494, a resident offeror of the Commonwealth of Kentucky shall be given a preference against a nonresident offeror. In evaluating bids, the University will apply a reciprocal preference against an offeror submitting a bid from a state that grants residency preference equal to the preference given by the state of the nonresident offeror. Residency and non-residency shall be defined in accordance with KRS 45A.494(2) and 45A.494(3), respectively. Any offeror claiming Kentucky residency status shall submit with its bid a notarized affidavit affirming that it meets the criteria as set forth in the above reference statute.

An affidavit is provided and attached, for your convenience to this ITB.

3.31 Reports and Auditing

The University, or its duly authorized representatives, shall have access to any books, documents, papers, records or other evidence which are directly pertinent to this contract for the purpose of financial audit or program review.

3.32 Confidentiality

The University recognizes an offeror's possible interest in preserving selected information and data included in the bid; however, the University must treat such information and data as required by the Kentucky Open Records Act, KRS 61.870, et seq.

If the offeror declares information provided in their response to be proprietary in nature and not available for public disclosure, the offeror shall declare in their response the inclusion of proprietary information and shall noticeably label as confidential or proprietary each sheet containing such information. Bids containing information declared by the offeror to be proprietary or confidential, either wholly or in part, not excluded by the Kentucky Open Records Act, KRS 61.870 may be deemed non-responsive and may be rejected.

The University's General Counsel shall review each offeror's information claimed to be confidential and, in consultation with the offeror (if needed), make a final determination as to whether or not the confidential or proprietary nature of the information or data complies with the Kentucky Open Records Act.

3.33 Conflict of Interest

When submitting and signing a bid, an offeror is certifying that no actual, apparent or potential conflict of interest exists between the interests of the University and the interests of the offeror. A conflict of interest (whether contractual, financial, organizational or otherwise) exists when any individual, contractor or subcontractor has a direct or indirect interest because of a financial or pecuniary interest, gift or other activities or relationships with other persons (including business, familial or household relationships) and is thus unable to render or is impeded from rendering impartial assistance or advice, has impaired objectivity in performing the proposed work or has an unfair competitive advantage.

Questions concerning this section or interpretation of this section should be directed to the University purchasing agent identified in this ITB.

3.41 Bid Bonds:
Not Applicable

3.42 Payment and Performance Bonds

100% Payment and Performance Bonds will be required for work arising from this ITB that is estimated to cost over $40,000.

3.43 Completion Dates or Liquidated Damages if applicable

It is understood and agreed that time is of the essence. The Contractor will efficiently, diligently, and expeditiously conduct the work in a manner that will satisfy compliance with approved project schedules and completion by the completion date appearing in the body of this bid.

3.44 Coordination of Work

The Vendor shall be responsible for coordinating all work with the NKU Project Manager. The Contractor shall cooperate completely with the Owner's security forces and measures.

3.45 Damage and Repairs

The Contractor shall exercise particular care to avoid damage to his own work, the Owner's property, and adjacent property of every description. He shall make good any damage resulting from or caused by the work under this contract at his sole expense in a manner satisfactory and without extra cost to the Owner including, but not limited to, finishes, furnishings, and landscaping.

3.46 Hazardous Materials

No asbestos containing materials, lead based paints, or other hazardous materials shall be furnished or installed in this work.

3.47 Examination of Site

Each vendor shall fully acquaint and familiarize themselves with the conditions as they exist and the character of the operation to be carried on under the proposed contract and has made such investigation as may be reasonably necessary so that the vendor shall fully understand the facilities, physical conditions and restrictions attending to the work under the contract. The specifications furnished represent a fair approximation of the material needed but all quotations submitted should take into account knowledge gained as a result of the above referenced visual inspection.

3.48 Examination of Contract

Each vendor shall also thoroughly examine and become familiar with the specifications and associated contract documents. By submitting a bid, the vendor agrees that they have carefully examined the specifications and have thereupon decided that from their own investigation Contractor has satisfied themselves as to the nature and location of work, the general and local conditions and all matters which may in any way affect the work or its performance and that as a result of such examination and investigation, vendor fully understands the intent and purpose of the documents and conditions of the bidding. Claims for additional compensation and/or extension of time because of the vendor's failure to follow the foregoing procedure and to familiarize themselves with the Contract Documents and all conditions which might affect work will not be allowed.

3.49 Field Verification

It is the Vendor's responsibility to verify all measurements.

3.50 Hours of Work

Working days at Northern Kentucky University are typically Monday through Friday, 8:00am to 4:30pm. Deviation from these working hours must be approved by said project manager.

3.51 Warranty

Contractor shall perform work in a good and workmanlike manner; certify that all materials are new and of good quality; and, conform all work to the contract documents. All work shall carry a one-year warranty, unless a longer warranty is requested or provided. When notified in writing from Owner, Contractor shall promptly and without inconvenience and cost to the Owner correct said deficiencies.

4.0 SCOPE OF WORK

Northern Kentucky University is accepting bids to establish multiple price contracts from MEP contractors for general repairs, renovation and construction work on facilities utilized by Northern Kentucky University. The contractor shall be capable of providing qualified, skilled and licensed tradesmen as may be required by individual jobs. All jobs are to include, but are not limited to the Contractor acquiring any necessary permits, inspections, and performance bonds when required.

Submittals are being requested for jobs initially estimated at $25,000 and below, those at $25,001 - $100,000 and for those above $100,001. NOTE: If a contractor's hourly rates, overhead %, mark-up % etc. and all other rates are the same in each category for all three levels, that contractor need only complete one set of forms, i.e. the $25,000 and below set of forms, by writing in "SAME AS ABOVE" on two sets of forms which follow the "$25,000 and below" forms.

The contract resultant from this solicitation shall begin with its award, be effective for one year after its inception, and may be renewed by mutual agreement by the University and the contractor for additional periods

BASIC REQUIREMENTS

To make a determination as to a responsible bidder, the following criteria shall be used: the bidder maintains a permanent place of business, has adequate plant and equipment to perform properly and expeditiously, suitable financial stature to meet obligations incidental to the work, has appropriate technical experience and competent personnel, is properly licensed, properly insured, and has reputable references attesting to your qualifications and capabilities. Please enclose a copy of your current liability insurance certificate.

SUBMITTALS

Bidders shall submit bids as indicated in the accompanying Bid Form and Sample Invoice Form and complete the attached Questionnaire.

The attached scenario found at the end of this document is not a job for award, but a job that will be used for evaluation. NKU has the right to waive any/all bids, anything viewed as a minor technicality, and NKU has the right to reject any bid at its discretion when not evaluated to be in its best interest. The decision of NKU is final. There shall be no guarantee of work, only what shall be needed.

INTENT

Projects that utilize this contract may range in value up to a maximum of $450,000. The NKU Project Manager shall request at least 3 contractors, among those holding NKU price contracts, of his/her choosing to quote on a project or work effort.. The written quotes are to be submitted within 10 working days of notification unless otherwise specified. The quote shall include a list of materials, containing the manufacturer, model number or other descriptive identification of each component. All jobs are assumed to be at regular labor rates. Overtime rates require the specific written approval of the NKU Project Manager. The lowest quote on a job as specified to be within the time frame required will be awarded the project as evaluated to be in the best interest of the University. NKU also reserves the right to quote or bid any project or job on the open market that is evaluated to be in the best interest of the University. Contractors may, at their discretion, choose not to bid on jobs when requested, without penalty.

NO WORK WILL BE PERFORMED BY THE CONTRACTOR EXCEPT UPON RECEIPT OF AN OFFICIAL PURCHASE ORDER FROM THE PROCUREMENT DEPARTMENT. ANY CHANGES MADE TO THE ORIGINAL SCOPE OF WORK WILL REQUIRE A FORMAL CHANGE ORDER TO THAT PO PRIOR TO ANY WORK PROCEEDING ON THAT CHANGE IN SCOPE.

All incidents of failure on the part of any contract holder to submit requested quotes repeatedly or to perform satisfactory and/or timely work shall be documented and kept on file. The University reserves the right to terminate the contract of any contractor that routinely fails to submit quotes or perform quality of work as outlined.

Northern Kentucky University General Terms and Conditions for Construction shall apply to all jobs under this contract. Those terms are attached to these documents.

CANCELLATION CLAUSE

The contract established by this invitation shall be cancelable for, but not limited to, mal-performance, nonperformance, substitution of commodities, or other failure to comply with specifications given herein on the part of the offeror. In the event of such action being necessitated, the contract shall be rendered void upon thirty (30) day written notice from the Director for Procurement Northern Kentucky University.

Northern Kentucky University reserves the right to terminate contracts for convenience when requirements under the contract no longer exist or changes in such supplies or services render the contract as not responsive to the needs of the university. In the event of any of the above, a written notice will be given to the offeror at least thirty (30) days prior to such proposed termination date.

INDEMNIFICATION

Contractor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Northern Kentucky University from any claim, damage, liability, injury, expense or loss arising out of vendor's performance under this agreement.

SUBCONTRACTING

The offeror will not subcontract work without the expressed written approval of the project manager and the Director for Procurement, Northern Kentucky University. For a project where other trades work is needed which is beyond the contractors' capabilities in-house, the contractor may team with another NKU price contract-holder to provide the work needed to complete the project.

NON-EXCLUSIVE CONTRACT

Northern Kentucky University may solicit additional contractors if successful offeror is unable to accommodate work schedule

TAX AND LICENSE FEES

It shall be the responsibility of the offeror to comply with any and all local, state, or federal requirements concerning license, taxes, etc. Northern Kentucky University is tax exempt; however, the university's exemption does not extend to contractual suppliers to the University.

PAYMENT AND PERFORMANCE BONDS

Payment and Performance bonds will be required on jobs exceeding $40,000.
